
Anderson's Children's Literature Breakfast 2017

Maria Walther, First Grade Teacher, Author, Literacy Consultant, Indian Prairie District 204, maria_walther@ipsd.org

www.mariawalther.com Follow me on Twitter @mariapwalther

A Few of My Favorite Lessons, Ideas, and Books

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Literature Is Back!</th>
<th>Trait-Based Writing Instruction</th>
<th>Reading Instruction for the Differentiated Classroom</th>
<th>Transforming Literacy Teaching in the Era of Higher Standards</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| p. 35 Books that Celebrate Writing
This is my Book! (Pett, 2016) | p. 127 Genre Study: Poetry
Daniel Finds a Poem (Archer, 2016) | p. 116 Predicting
A Hungry Lion or a Dwindling Assortment of Animals (Cummins, 2016) | p. 124 Point of View
A Perfect Day (Smith, 2017) |
| p. 52 Wordless Books
Wolf in the Snow (Cordell, 2017) | p. 61 Read Alouds for Writers/Mentor Texts
Everywhere, Wonder (Swanson, 2017) | p. 161 Questioning
A Bike Like Sergio's (Boelts, 2016) | p. 127 Use Illustrations to Describe Characters, Settings, and Events
A Dog Wearing Shoes (Ko, 2015) |